

It Was a Beautiful Sunday at the Lucky Squirrel – and We Have the Pictures to Prove It

The Garden City Lucky Squirrel flea market and craft fair was postponed for a day due to weather, but Sunday's event was a rousing success. The Squirrel is hosted by one of our web clients, the Garden City Downtown Development Authority, so we were on hand to document the goings-on.

Check out the photos here, or view the entire DDA website here.

Palmerworks provides several clients with blogging services and we go the extra mile by taking photos of events, as well. Our services are professional, yet affordable. If your company needs help with social networking, be sure to give us a call at 734-252-9321.